If I Had a Fine White Horse

Lyrics by Marsha Norman
Music by Lucy Simon
Arranged by Dan Coates

If I had a fine white horse, I'd take it for a ride today. But since I have no fine white horse, in side I'll have to stay. And empty all the chamber pots and scrub the floors and such. But Lily’s Eyes

Moderately, with movement

Dr. Craven:
She has her eyes?
The girl has Lily’s hazel eyes. Those eyes that saw him happy long ago. Those eyes that gave him life and hope he’d never known. How can I see this girl who has her hazel eyes that closed and left me all alone. Those eyes I feel will never ever let me go.
